Application Procedures

Please read the following information. It will help you determine the correct application procedure for you.

Continuing UCSB Students—enrolled in Spring 2009, do not need to apply. Simply use GOLD (<http://my.sa.ucsb.edu/home/index.aspx>) to register for Summer Sessions courses.

Spring 2009 Degree Candidates—who has already declared candidacy, fill out the Application Form and submit it to Summer Sessions. You may register by using GOLD on-line within three working days of submission of the Application Form. A Spring degree candidate may not use summer coursework towards completion of his/her degree. Non-UC fees will apply.

Newly Admitted Students—to UCSB for the 2009 Fall Quarter as a graduate or undergraduate student, will need to complete the Application Form and ensure it is received by Summer Sessions before the June 15 deadline. Upon receipt of your application, a Registration Information E-mail, containing your PERM (permanent ID) number and other important information, will be sent to you.

Returning Students in Good Academic Standing—to the campus after an absence to complete an unfinished degree, will need to complete the Application Form and ensure it is received by Summer Sessions before the June 15 deadline. Upon receipt of your application, a Registration Information E-mail, containing your PERM number and other important information, will be sent to you.

Students from Another UC Campus—will need to complete the Application Form and ensure it is received by Summer Sessions before the June 15 deadline. Upon receipt of your application, a Registration Information E-mail, containing your PERM number and other important information, will be sent to you.

Visiting Non-UC Students—will need to complete the Application Form and ensure it is received by Summer Sessions before the June 15 deadline. The non-refundable application fee is $140. The Application Fee must be sent with the Application Form to cover processing costs. Upon receipt of your application, complete with the fee, a Registration Information E-mail, containing your PERM number and other important information, will be sent to you.

Non-UC International Students—from foreign countries must enroll for Summer Sessions through our UCSB Extended Learning Services' Summer Program for International Students (SPIS). Additional information can be found on their website — www.unex.ucsb.edu/ip/spis/.

Prospective students from foreign countries considering traveling to the U.S. using a Visitors (B-2 or other visitor status) visa should note that U.S. immigration regulations do not allow individuals to enter the U.S. with a Visitors visa when the primary purpose is to pursue full-time study.

Students from foreign countries already in the U.S. in a valid immigration status (i.e. as an F-1 student at another institution, or in another valid non-immigrant status) should consult their international student advisor before attending UCSB Summer Sessions.

All students having non-immigrant visas are required to carry health insurance for themselves and any family members who accompany them to Santa Barbara.
